PRESIDENT'S COLUMN...

I'd like to share with you, our members, some of our business at our last Friends Board meeting on January 27, 2010. We had a heavy agenda. Among the motions we passed were those that our Acting Branch Manager/Senior Librarian Michele Raeburn requested. (FYI, Michele first gets approval from her LAPL supervisor, and then submits her requests to me, prior to our Board meeting.)

So far in the 2009-2010 year -- our $6,000 annual subscription to the Hot-Off-The-Press books - is still in progress until June. Now for 2010, our Board has agreed to serve as program co-sponsors and to make gifts to the Library for the following -- totaling $3,001.00.

$1,998.00 - two shopping trips of $999 each for books, DVDs, CDs. (LAPL pre-approves $999 Librarian shopping trips with the Friends)

$63.00 - subscriptions for teen magazines

$200.00 -- 5 adult programs: League of Women Voters, Chamber Music, and 3 on Medical & Legal

Aspects for Seniors

$250.00 - 2 teen programs: Poetry Month coffeehouse program, and Comic Book Publishers Program

$350.00 - 2 children's programs: Cinco de Mayo Program, and Music Program for Summer Reading

Kickoff.

$140.00 - supplies (desk blotters, large colored paper and displays for bulletin boards)

As you'll read further in this newsletter, you'll see the results of our 2009 Income and Gifts to the Library, and why we promote our bookstore, book sales, and membership so much. When you read the reports of our two Senior Librarians (one previous, one current), you'll know how important the Friends are to the growth and maintenance of our Encino-Tarzana branch. Again, I thank our wonderful volunteers for making all of this possible.

A few notes:

-- Be sure to check the new Library Hours - see page 6. Regrettably, this cuts back on our Friday Book Sale hours.

-- Membership renewals were mailed in January. Please return with your dues ASAP.

-- Sign up for our new Community Sponsor webpage -- see page 8.

Any questions - or ideas for Friends projects - feel free to write or call... We'd love to hear from you, and you're always welcome at our Board meetings (4th Wed. of most months).

FIRST VICE-PRESIDENT, ADELE DRUCK -- 2009 ANNUAL REPORT

As First Vice President I have substituted for Barbara at one monthly Board meeting and have served as a sounding board for her as she has presented ideas and suggestions for various Friends programs and activities.

On October 25 Barbara invited me to join her at a reception and meeting with representatives of citywide Friends groups and Martin Gomez the new City Librarian. Mr. Gomez, who comes to L.A after heading up the San Francisco and Brooklyn Public Libraries, provided some of his background and then addressed the challenges facing the Library as a hiring freeze continues, and early retirement packages being offered to long term employees will further erode staffing levels. He stressed the importance of Friends in supporting the Library as budget cuts continue to limit resources.

I continued to assist in Publicity by making posters and flyers for Friends events and various signs for the Book Store and Book Sales, and occasionally pitch in and help sort book donations.

BOOKSTORE AND BOOK SALES -- 2009 ANNUAL REPORT
BY MARK LAMKEN, 2ND VICE PRESIDENT AND LIAISON

$10,125.57 -- Bookstore Income

$12,612.38 -- Quarterly Book Sales Income

$22,737.95 -- TOTAL Bookstore and Book Sales Income

(Our reports are delivered at our annual November meeting, thus the 2009 results are from Nov. 1 thru Oct. 31)

[President's Note: Bookstore and Book Sales have continued to raise more funds than the year before, due to the diligence, hard work, and dedication of three extraordinary members: Norma Lamken, Joyce Propper, and Margaret Talvin. They sort donations at least two days a week, restock the Bookstore, set up and work the book sales, train the volunteers, etc. The volunteers have become very loyal to the "three," taking turns at the Bookstore, and returning for each new sale. Mark Lamken is also a big help as liaison, as is Jane Gebers, who schedules the substitute volunteers. And there is Candice Mack, Teen Librarian, who encourages her teens to help too. Words cannot express how grateful we are - for all that they do - to benefit the Encino-Tarzana Branch Library! THANK YOU TO EVERYONE!]

SENIOR LIBRARIANS / BRANCH MANAGERS - 2009 REPORTS

August 2009 Farewell Message From Melissa Potter, Senior Librarian / Branch Manager
June 2006 - August 2009

Dear Barbara and Friends,

I wanted to let you know that after three really great years in Encino-Tarzana, I have accepted a position as the Senior Librarian at the New Silver Lake branch at 2411 Glendale Blvd.. It is a brand new branch in a new "green" (Bamboo & solar panels & so on) building that is not open to the public yet, in a community that has never had its own library. This is a great opportunity for me and it is much, much closer to my home, so I can be more green by not driving so very far every day.

I wanted to let you know though, that I will miss seeing and working with you, as you are all so generous and supportive and without you there is no way that this library could have had the 6th highest circulation for branches in the system last fiscal year. From July 2008 through June 2009, Encino-Tarzana circulated 321,245 items. This was only possible because our Friends support us and give us extras that other branches do not have, like Hot Off the Press and additional items throughout the year that we could not afford on the city budget alone.

Michele Raeburn from Granada Hills will become the Acting Senior Librarian starting on Monday, Aug. 31.

Thank you for everything, and I will miss you.

Sincerely,
Melissa Potter

November 2009 Annual Report
By Michele Raeburn, Senior Librarian / Acting Branch Manager
August 31 - November 18, 2009

My starting in September at Encino-Tarzana Library threw me into a busy branch with the usual mayhem that accompanies public service but thankfully, before the City's economic woes led to further complications. I'd had many cautionary rumblings from friends about accepting the acting senior position at ET: the patrons are all hot-headed, especially concerning fines; the staff is rather contentious; the workload was tremendous, ET being the sixth busiest branch of 72 branches City-wide has its downside, after all, and being ACTING means all the your efforts mean naught as you can and probably will be ultimately replaced.

Having been a long-term sub librarian here a few years ago, I was aware of some of the issues already. And from previous experience as acting senior, I knew the folly of charging in and immediately attempting to change procedures and policies, especially trying to change people. I was determined to come in with my eyes open and my mind as well, figuring I'd give it my best shot. But was I surprised! Nothing prepared me for the great charm of this place: a really good collection with people dedicated to working hard to keep it up and provide great service to an interested, educated and grateful public! In my 28 years working for the L.A. City Library Dept., I don't think I've met more professional staff members or more caring and concerned patrons anywhere. As I've worked at all 20 branches in the San Fernando Valley at one time or another, that's saying a lot.

I think Melissa's report in August of this year, prior to her leaving ET, summed up the financial and social relationship of the Library and the Friends very well, and in the past three months, there has been little added business to report. Mostly, I've been running to catch up with all of the demands of my new position, learning the many new computer formats, the payroll and ordering procedures, the branch equipment and repair needs, who to call for what, and of course, discovering who the unique and terrific people are that I work with. That includes the ET Friends of the Library members, especially President Barbara Leff and the Board. What a group of over-achieving, bright, reliable and fun folks to work with!

Looking at the immediate future, the Library Dept., along with all of the other City departments, is cutting back, reflecting the worsened economic times. The first order of business came this past week: hours of service would be cut as of December 11. Every Friday, libraries will only be open from 1:30 to 5:30 p.m. All employees will be taking a 7-hr. per month salary cut as well via work furlough. This is perhaps an opening move, further cuts may be implemented next year.

Employees have also been told that administrative transfers will be made. This means branches that have fewer than the necessary numbers of staff will take on staff from other branches and the transfers will become permanent. I don't expect to lose any staff from ET as we are a very busy branch, but since the City has not been hiring for the past year and there have been staff retirements where positions have not been filled, it is conceivable that we might lose a staff member or two. That might curtail our reference and circulation duties considerably.

Though we have an excellent collection, one of our most immediate needs is to weed to make room for newer titles and get rid of now less popular items and those in poor condition. We continue to get so many great gifts but often don't have enough shelf space for them. In that same vein, we are cleaning up the staff workroom to create badly needed storage space as well as enlarging work areas. I will be asking for funds to purchase some organizers to this end.

Meanwhile, we will continue to bring you interesting book clubs, programming for all ages, free computer use, and a place to come to get in touch with your best self and discover new prospects for the future. We've been in tight times before. With such good people on my team, I'm confident we'll just get more innovative to meet these newest challenges!

This year's Guadalajara International Book Fair (FIL), taking place November 28-December 6, will focus on Los Angeles and feature the achievements of the Los Angeles Public Library (LAPL).

LAPL director Martin Gomez will address the International Librarians Colloquium on November 30, sharing the 73-branch system's best practices. Guadalajara is Mexico's second-largest city.

This year, for the first time, FIL, selected a city—Los Angeles—rather than a country or region to serve as guest of honor. Gomez will speak about LAPL's challenges and successes in serving a diverse population of more than four million, including new children's and teen programs. Gomez also will talk about LAPL's recently completed library infrastructure project.

In addition to showcasing LAPL, the city's accomplishments in performing, visual, and literary arts will be highlighted. Gómez is part of a Los Angeles delegation that includes Mayor Villaraigosa... .
