FRIEND OF THE YEAR 2015 – GISELA SEHNERT

By our President Adele Druck

Ordinarily, the Friend of the Year award is presented at our Annual Meeting in November. However this year we did it a little bit early.

Recently, Gisela Sehnert announced that she would be moving to Northern California to be closer to her family. Since she was leaving in mid-October, the award was presented before her departure. Gisela has been an indefatigable volunteer for longer than the 10 plus years that I have been associated with the Friends.

Gisela has served on our Board of Directors, been a regular volunteer in the bookstore, worked at every book sale, and she handled publicity going around the valley distributing posters and flyers for Friends programs and book sales. She has handled mailing the Library Events Calendar to local schools and mailing book sale flyers to interested parties. When we were asked if the Friends could help to keep the profusion of free literature in the lobby neat and organized, Gisela stepped up and maintained order.

It is already apparent that her leaving has created a sizeable gap in our operation, which will be difficult to fill.

Gisela, we miss you..... and best of luck in your new neighborhood.....

REPORT: ANNUAL CITYWIDE FRIENDS BREAKFAST & MEETING

Saturday, October 3, 2015 – Central Library –

Reported by Ilene Braverman, Hospitality Chair, to Barbara Leff, Publications Chair

After a delicious buffet breakfast in the Mark Taper Auditorium and chatting with Friends from all over the city, we heard from LAPL Friends Liaison Jené Brown and City Librarian John F. Szabo.

Mr. Szabo announced that Los Angeles Public Library (LAPL) has met every promise that was made in the Measure L City Ballot Initiative passed in 2011, with the help of Friends groups. Also, LAPL is the first library to offer an accredited high school program and 113 people are currently enrolled. See: <http://www.lapl.org/about-lapl/press/> for more facts, progress, and reports on LAPL.

Following more speeches, there were Break-Out Sessions: Our Webmaster Judy Russell presented the session on Websites. The Newsletter session presenter cited our Newsletter for a few good examples. Ilene attended "Ideas Swapping/ Friends Brag Fest" and later shared some of the ideas with the Friends Board on October 21.

All in all, it was an interesting time at the Central Library with other Friends members.

NOV. 14 -- REACQUAINT YOURSELF WITH YOUR KITCHEN
by Maggi Stern, Member-At-Large

The Friends of the Library are having a terrific COOKBOOK SALE ON NOVEMBER 14 FROM 9:30 am to 2:30 pm AT OUR ENCINO-TARZANA LIBRARY. We received a very large donation from a private collector of hundreds upon hundreds of cookbooks that span the globe.

So, if you are a master chef, interested in becoming one, have always wanted to learn about a particular kind of cooking or baking technique, or just want to understand what function your kitchen serves other than a large room to house your microwave, this sale is for you.

There are cookbooks from Spain, Portugal, Italy, England, Ireland, France, China, Viet Nam, Persia, New Zealand. We have cookbooks ranging from holiday cookbooks to cookbooks for quick and easy meals. There are wonderful "how to" and instructional guides to kitchens, cooking, and gadgets for those of you who have avoided your kitchen long enough.

We have cookbooks about baking cakes, cookies, fancy elaborate desserts of all varieties, and decorating. There is even a book about Jello confections.

Many of the cookbooks are by master chefs, television chefs, and the best recipes gathered from congregations of all denominations from all over the country. We also have a large variety of American regional cookbooks if you want to learn how to barbecue like a Texan, make Shrimp Creole style, New England Clam Chowder, or Navajo Flat Bread.

All cookbooks will be sorted in easy-to-find categories. Most are in great condition that will make wonderful Holiday gifts ... or if YOU are feeling more adventuresome ... how about wonderful new dishes for you to try out on family and friends?

WE NEED HELP!!!

by Jane Gebers, Book Sales Assistant and Member-At-Large

Who does all the sorting, shelving, and selling work – that supports the Library? People like you, or your friend, or neighbor, who have an hour or two of spare-time-a-week to help out in a good cause for the Library. OR, maybe you can be a Substitute Volunteer from time to time? We always need new Volunteers. Even if you have to hobble in on a cane, as I do, you can sit in the Bookstore and sell books for a couple hours.

We especially need help in the afternoons and evenings -- 3:00-5:00 and (Mo.-Th.) 5:00-7:00.

Just leave your name and number at the Bookstore desk. Thank you very much.

P.S. FYI - We appreciate our Volunteers so much that we host a Volunteer Breakfast in the Spring, and a Library Staff & Volunteer Brunch in the Fall.

WHAT'S NEW IN OUR FRIENDS' BOOKSTORE?

By Jane Gebers, Book Sales Assistant

Well, we're continually finding new and interesting categories for books! Did you know we have a Humor Section. It's fun to read, and useful to liven-up your conversation or any speeches you have to make. There is a Religious Section: a good place to further your understanding of all religions.

Then behind the entry door, on the lower shelves, you'll find all sorts of helpful information on A.P. Classes, Testing and other Educational materials. We also have Travel books, books of Plays, Parenting, Self-Improvement, Cookbooks, Sports books, Hobbies – you name it; we probably have it. We even have DVD and Audiobooks sections now!

Sometimes people complain that we don't have enough Large-Print books or Foreign Language books in the store --- Just remember we ONLY have in stock what you folks DONATE to the store. SO FOLKS - P-L-E-A-S-E do gather up your surplus books and DVDs and DO leave them at the Reference Desk – straight-ahead as you walk in the entrance. Also please DO take them INTO the Library, and don't just leave them outside the building where "treasure seekers" just GRAB them, and they never make it into our bookstore for you!! AND WE ALL BENEFIT - Used Book Sales money also buys new books, including the Best-Seller books, for us.

(See more in Jane's Books: <http://www.etlibraryfriends.org/3janesbooks.php>)

Yours for more and better reading, Jane.....

2015 REPORT FROM OUR BRANCH MANAGER - DAVID HAGOPIAN

The big news at the Los Angeles Public Library (LAPL) in 2015 is winning the NATIONAL MEDAL FOR MUSEUM AND LIBRARY SERVICE, the highest honor that a public library and museum can receive. This award recognizes and honors the Library's programs, services, resources and especially the staff for their commitment to serving millions of Angelenos, who use our 73 branches and Central Library in downtown Los Angeles. [See photo and details of LAPL City Librarian John F. Szabo accepting the award from First Lady Michelle Obama -- <http://www.lapl.org/NationalMedal> .]

At the Encino-Tarzana Branch we share in that commitment to serving our community. This includes working hard to make sure that the branch has books, DVDs, and other popular items on the shelves, as well as providing programs that our patrons will enjoy. This year we presented numerous programs for adults, teens, and children, covering a wide range of areas of interest, from entertainment (magic shows for children) to cultural (history of the Mexican rebozo) to crafts (shirt-making for teens), many of them generously funded by our Friends of the Encino-Tarzana Public Library.

We were lucky not to have any major facility or grounds problems in 2015, but we did make some repairs and improvements, such as adding an Early Learning Area for children and families in our children's section, featuring a puppet stage with 20 puppets (provided by the Friends); and we now have a Homework Helper in our Student Zone, who is available four days a week to assist children and teens with their studies and help them use our numerous resources.

We also have added a self-checkout machine for patrons' use, and, though it might not be evident to the public, the Library has updated our catalog and loan system, making getting materials into patrons' hands easier and faster.

If the reading room looks brighter, it is because we refreshed over fifty lights that illuminate the stacks; and because we have added four very friendly, smiling, hard-working people to our staff.

As always, we continue to be one of the busiest branches. Patrons continue to borrow materials at a higher rate here than almost all the other branches. With support from the Friends, who volunteer their valuable time to raise money for the Branch, we are able to purchase extra copies of the books our patrons want as well as new titles that we could not otherwise afford. Friends' money also enables us to present more programs, purchase furniture for the reading room, equipment for the workroom, a large rug for story time, and provide refreshments at our programs.

2015 winds down with the Library making some gains and continuing to strengthen and evolve. Our budget is a little bigger. The Library continues to hire to replace lost positions. Our eMedia collection continues to grow. We have added many online resources to our collection. It is my hope that the Library continues this positive trend in 2016 and the Encino and Tarzana communities continue to use their local branch as a source for learning and entertainment, as a place to meet and gather, and to look upon us as a valuable community resource.

BANNED BOOKS WEEK --- SEPTEMBER 27 - OCTOBER 3, 2015

In recognition of Banned Books Week, Maggi Stern created a beautiful display in the glass cabinet in our Library's Lobby. She showed an eclectic display of books – from the classics to children's books – from F. Scott Fitzgerald to Captain Underpants. It looked great – hope you stopped to look at it!
